

To earn the Grand Master of Dollmaking™ title

The rules below are in effect for your entry in competition. These rules are also spelled out on the affidavit that you will receive with the registration confirmation and submit with the doll.

Doll must be entered EITHER in a category for authentic reproduction and created as such, OR in category for Modern Dolls in Dimensional Doll Painting (DDP) with Painted Eyes. (DDP dolls must have painted upper and lower lashes. Glue-on lashes are not allowed.) The following dolls are excluded: All-Bisque, Doll-House, Baby, Toddler, Googly-eyed, and Painted-eye dolls as well as half-dolls, candy-container, "Surprise", and fortune-teller dolls and any doll under 10" (25cm).

Doll must be fully dressed with complete, customary, and typical doll ensemble, including complete underwear, stockings, shoes, wig, and appropriate hat all made by the contestant. Excluded are any type of uniform, folk- and ethnic costume. Hat or headdress, must be constructed from scratch. Straw hats or parts for hats made of straw, need to be constructed from straw-by-the-yard. Headdress includes, but is not limited to, arrangement of bows, ribbon, feathers, and flowers. Bow in hair is not sufficient as headdress. Hat or headdress to be created in harmony with the rest of the costume. Wig must be constructed from wefted mohair or human hair. Skin wig is not acceptable. Accessories and props, if any, must also be made by contestant.

If the requirements above are not met, 11 points will be deducted from score.

Note: The ribbon requirement for GM title might be waived for dollmakers 70 and up. Please contact DAG for further details.

You must personally make the costume, underwear, wig, hat/headdress, stockings, shoes and any accessories for this doll, and not do any of this work in seminar, class, or private lesson(s).
